

TEN VERY GOOD REASONS TO EXPLORE THE MUSIC LIBRARY at Jennings

- 1) We give out free music sampler CDs and lollipops
- 2) Jennings is the Coolest Building on campus!
Come see the huge Lion Head Andirons that inspired Shirley Jackson's; The Haunting of Hill House
- 3) There is a Secret Safe in the Music Library
- 4) There is a 'Butler's Bell' call box in the Music Library
- 5) You can check out CDs, LPs, Music Scores, and Books on Music.... and it doesn't cost a cent
- 6) We have a super comfy Listening Room where you can lie down and listen to Jazz on Vinyl (or watch DVDs, etc., etc.)
- 7) You can stand outside of Jennings, and hear the soothing sound of music pouring out from 3 stories
- 8) Even if you are not taking any music courses during your 4-year confinement...listening to a wide assortment of music can enhance your understanding of Foreign Languages, Art, Dance, Mathematics (yes, really!), Psychology, Drama, YOURSELF.....etc. etc. etc.....
- 9) The Music Library is exceedingly USER-Friendly
- 10) Music is Great for the Soul!
